MOSCOW

Mongol invasion, Crimean Tatars, war against Napoleon – several times throughout its history this city burned to ashes. It is here, where Russian emperors and Tsars were crowned, the City of the Seven Hills. This is Moscow, the capital of Russia that blended the fates of emperors and imposters, writers and their characters, merchants and poets, criminals and glorious architects.

ST . PETERSBURG

There are as many attractions in Saint-Petersburg, as the number of years since its foundation. And as the locals say, each year it acquires another one. Even sophisticated Europeans recognize upon arrival, this is one of the most beautiful cities in the world.

GOLDEN RING

The Golden Ring of Russia is a tourist route that was developed in the late 1960s uniting medieval Russian cities on the north-east of Moscow. Centuries ago this was the power core of eastern Kyivan Rus. Nowadays it attracts a lot of tourists searching for a lost idyll. You'll find the spiritual heart of the Orthodox Church here, as well as historic architecture, religious art, traditional cooking and time-honoured handicrafts. The route includes the following cities, such as Sergiev Posad, Suzdal, Vladimir, Ivanovo, Kostroma, Yaroslavl, Pereslavl-Zalesskiy, Rostov Velikiy, Uglich.

SILVER RING

The silver ring of Russia is a route that passes through ancient Russian towns, which have preserved exceptional monuments of history and culture of the Russian North-West. The silver Ring route comprises several historical cities of 7 subordinate entities of Russian Federation: Veliky Novgorod, Pskov, Velikiye Luki, Izborsk, Pechory, Ivangorod, Kingisepp, Vyborg, Staraya Ladoga, and Vologda.

SIBERIA

Irkutsk & Baikal Lake

Irkutsk is a commercial, cultural, manufacturing & scientific center of the Eastern Siberia. Lake Baikal is the freshwater lake with greatest volume in the world, containing roughly 20% of the world's unfrozen surface fresh water! It's hard to imagine, but this huge lake is the deepest and the oldest in the world and one of the clearest at the same time. Baikal is home to more than 1,700 species of plants and animals, two-thirds of which can be found nowhere else in the world. The reason for it is the clearest, transparent water enriched with oxygen.

TRANSIBERIAN RAILWAY

Trans-Siberian Railway or as the locals call it "Trans-Sib" is the longest network of railways in the world (more than 9000 km/5592 mi). It connects Moscow with the largest cities of Russian Far East, crossing enormous territories.

RUSSIAN NORTH

Murmansk

Murmansk region is considered one of the best places where you can enjoy one of the most amazing natural phenomenon - the Northern Lights (or Aurora Borealis). The season of Aurora hunting lasts from late September till middle April.

Karelia

Forests, lakes and rivers open up perfect opportunities for quiet vacation in Karelia and for active tourism such as hunting, fishing, safaris on snowmobiles, rafting, canoeing and boating, eco-tours. There are not only natural, but also cultural and historical tourist attractions. Among them there are Kizhi architectural museum, the Holy-Transfiguration Valaam Monastery.

Arkhangelsk

Arkhangelsk is a city in the north of Russia, situated not far from the shore of the North Sea. There is a lot of snow everywhere in winter. A true north fairytale! Not far from Arkhangelsk there is a reindeer herders' village where it is possible to meet real reindeer!
